Who's To BLAME ?- In an article addressed to the Postmaster at Columbia, the Banner copies an extract from a letter from two of its subscribers at Cross-Bridges, in Maury county, in which they complain that, while they get the Louisville Journal in one day, the Banner goes to their office two days after publication. The Banner having ascertained from the Post trying physicians and the most popular medicines of | master here that the paper is regularly mailed

"The fault, then, must be in the Columbia office; and inasmuch as the Louisville Journal is allowed to reach its subscribers there, passing through this city, in one day, it is difficult to understand why the Banner should be obstructed.

The Postmaster at Columbia is Col. R. B. MOORE-officially called Dick. We know him well-have known him a number of years. He is a strong Democrat-strong enough to out-lift a six-year-old mule. But we don't readers to a remedy known as McLean's Strength- believe his Democracy is quite strong enough to stop the Banner and hold it back two or three days from its subscribers. He can have no motive for such shabby conduct, and we are inclined to think that such shabbiness is not in his line of trade, nor in that of Mr. VOORHIES, his deputy, who is also a faithful and attentive officer.

The fact of the business is, the mail from afflicted to apply to him. NICHOLSON & HUMPHREY, to DAVID HUMPHREY, who Columbia to Cross-Bridges, which is carried will continue the business as heretofore. I will on horse-back, doesn't make the trip oftener assist him in winding up the business of the old than once or twice a week, and it is very firm, and solicit for him a continuance of the patron likely that the Banner reaches Columbia a day or two before the mail goes out, and is compelled to lie over there and wait the officially regulated movements of the post-boy. And it may be that the Journal gets there on the right day to hit the mail in question, and is therefore sent on at once.

When the matter is explained, that's about ASTHMA, For the INSTANT RELIEF and the way it will turn out. JO. G. BROWN & EVANS, 43, College Street, Nashville. OPINIONS OF PHYSICIANS. We the undersigned, have had occasion to prescribe and watch the use of the Artesian Water, in a variety of diseases, and we have no hesitation in de claring it to be our opinion that it is an exceedingly valuable remedy in many chronic diseases. Those in which :ts use has been attended with the most marked benefit thus far are, chronic rheumatism cutaneous affections, and some of the chronic disor ders of the digestive system.

The known chemical elements found in the water of such a nature, and they exist in such states of combination, that we have no doubt it will be ound in a more extended experience, in its effects to have as wide a range of applicability in the cure of diseases as any mineral water known.

The mercury at one o'clock this afternoon stood at 99. Cincinnati, July 12-P. M. There is nothing noteworthy doing in general Mer a stile business. In Produce there is but little life. Flour hangs heavily, as last reported and was offered more freely, perhaps, to-day, maintaining about the same range of prices.
Wheat is dull, and miliers steadily resist anything over $1 00 for Red, and $1 05@$1 10 for White.

Corn is in only limited demand, with very full recipts The inside of yesterday's quotations—45cthe best that the market can be quoted at.
Outs are quiet, with large sales at 351/236c. Ful receipts depress the market; besides the general re-port of a first rate crop has a tendency to force down be market. Barley and Rye remain as last quoted. Whisky holds to 17c freely. A better general business was done to-day in Pro visions, though no change is noticeable in the general spirit of the market. Holders are very independent at the standard of figures now raling, particularly so on the least intimate n of an increased enquiry. A considerable business was done in Bacon, but particulars were not made public. 500 bbls Mess Pork were reported at $18.75. It is said that $19 will be required to duplicate such a trade. 300 bbls Lard were recorded at 120 and 100 bbls at 12%. Atlanta, July 11 --- P. M. The stocks of Bacon are moderate, while the demand is very fair. Hams are very scarce, and are advancing. An aperient and stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen, of high medical authority and extraordinary efficacy in each of the following complaints, viz.:

DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMA-CIATION, DYSPEPSIA, DIARRHEA, CONSTI-

MENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, etc., PIMPLES ON THE FACE, ROUGHNESS OF THE SKIN, etc. The IRON being absorbed by the blood, and thus circulating through the whole system, no part of the body can escape their truly wonderful influence. The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can for a moment be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. In all cases of female debility (fluor albus, chlorosis, etc.), its effects are delightfully renovating. No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects. Good appetite, com plete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength,
